Tuition Policy:

HLSC understands that a classical hybrid school is not the best fit for each child and desires to give parents the flexibility to make a change mid-year if necessary. At the same time, HLSC requires a commitment from families that will allow us to meet our financial obligations throughout the year. The following tuition policy seeks to balance these considerations.

If a student withdraws before December 1, the family will owe five monthly tuition payments (July-November) or two trimester payments (July and October). If a student withdraws after December 1, the family will be responsible for the entire tuition. No refunds of previously paid tuition will be given.
