Reading, Phonics, And Spelling

Students will receive traditional formal instruction in phonics, spelling and early reading using Memoria Press First Start Reading, Classical Phonics, and Traditional Spelling. Second graders will begin formal grammar instruction through Latin and supporting curriculum.

Penmanship:

Using traditional manuscript and cursive curriculum and copywork, students will receive instruction on proper pen grip and posture for penmanship.

Christian Studies:

Using a selected story bible, students will begin their formal instruction on bible literacy.

Enrichment:

Students will receive instruction on classical composers, classical children's literature, and historical artwork, as well as work on fine motor skills through crafts and projects.

3rd grade - 8th grade

Classical Studies:

Students will receive sequential instruction on the history, literature, geography and philosophy of ancient civilizations through the middle ages.

Christian Studies:

Students will continue to solidify their bible literacy as well as build upon that knowledge in context of geography, other civilizations, and world history.

Grammar/Writing Composition:

Students will receive sequential instruction on proper composition, vocabulary use, and grammar rules using Memoria Press Classical Composition and Grammar Recitation Program.

Literature:

Students will read selections ranging from classical children’s literature to the most important literary works of western civilization. Students will learn literary devices, vocabulary, and reading comprehension through these works.

Latin:

Students will study formal latin grammar sequentially, while simultaneously learning the structure of language and derivatives that originate in latin.
